ST. JOHN'S UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Saint John's United Methodist, Anderson, South Carolina's first church. Organized in 1828. First, a log meeting house was built on West Benson Street. A brick structure replaced the log one on this site in 1858.

Another brick building replaced that one in 1888, and this sanctuary was completed in 1912.

Pub. by Lewis D. Moorhead, Anderson, S.C.

93575-C

post card

dp MADE BY DEXTER PRESS, INC. WEST NYACK, NEW YORK